

The Jobs Crisis & The Threat to Our Living Standards

- What caused this economic crisis?
- Is President Obama's jobs plan what we need?
- Can we create jobs for the long-term unemployed and minority youth?
- Is taxing the rich "class warfare"?
- How do attacks on unions (such as "right-to-work" laws, limits on project labor agreements) impact all working people?
- What can we do?

Tuesday, November 15, 7pm

Teamsters Local 364 Hall
2405 Edison Road, South Bend
(east of Ironwood)

Speaker:

Marty Wolfson, Notre Dame Economist
Director, Higgins Labor Studies Program, Center for Social Concerns

Community Panel:

Tony Flora, Secretary, AFL-CIO Central Labor Council
Board Member, Community Forum for Economic Development

Becky Ruvalcaba, Executive Director
La Casa de Amistad

Glenn Williams, President
Michiana African-American Chamber of Commerce

Sponsors: Community Forum for Economic Development; Higgins Labor Studies Program, University of Notre Dame; La Casa de Amistad; Michiana African-American Chamber of Commerce; North Central Indiana AFL-CIO Central Labor Council; South Bend NAACP; Teamsters Local 364